

Grace and Peace to you in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ!

I come to you with HOPE today as I've witnessed so many stepping up to assist those most vulnerable and am hearing many, many stories of care and encouragement and God's love experienced and shared in these challenging days.

As many of you may have already surmised, our Easter Worship will be online only at 10:00am. And there will not be a Sunrise Service. However, beginning this Sunday (3/22) we will have recordings of Choir or Handbells each week as part of our online worship. On Easter we will have two recorded selections. Additionally, on Communion Sunday and Easter we will have Communion by way of Community Love Feast. I will consecrate elements in the sanctuary and if you choose to participate, please have your own bread and juice at home ready for that consecration. Then your family can serve one another at home.

Although we cannot be present with one another in worship, we can be together in the Spirit!

Easter is a time of New Life and Hope for the world and this year our world needs Easter Hope more than ever!

Please communicate any needs that you have to me, lfrancis@lbumc.org or Pastor Debbie, dgara@lbumc.org or the church office, office@lbumc.org.

May God's grace and peace fill you days!

With my love and many prayers,

Pastor Lynn
